SOCIETY

Pink Luncheon
 One of the most elaborate and successful social affairs ever held in Deming was given by the Misses Peggy and Florence Taylor at the Harvey House Thursday afternoon when they entertained at a "Pink" luncheon, some forty women guests. The color scheme was arranged in pink and the tables were most handsomely decorated with pink roses banked in ferns. At each plate there was a pink rose and the place cards were decorated with pink roses.

Surprise Party
 A surprise party and dance was given by about twenty couples at the Crystal Theater last Friday night in honor of Miss Tevis Young, who has been visiting her brother, Richard Young. During the dance the light refreshments were served and the jolly party enjoyed themselves until a late hour and all present expressed their great regrets that Miss Young was to leave the city.
